1. Malchin-Waren (U38-U25)

25X1X6

- a. In addition to a district komendatura, Malchin is occupied by approximately 100 motorized rifle troops who, together with 200 German police, were seen training with carbines and Soviet MGs.
- b. According to the director of the telephone exchange, Waren is held only by komendatura troops. The wooded area between Waren and Malchin was recently surveyed by tank officers.

2. Teterow (U28)

Unoccupied. The former emergency airfield has been destroyed.

3. Güstrow (T98)

- a. The artillery barracks and the airfield have been destroyed. The Infanterie Kaserne is partly occupied by German civilians and also serves as a headquarters for the komendatura and an MVD detachment. Some part of this Kaserne is also used by officers working at the Primaburg munitions plant situated between Güstrow and Teterow. These officers use motorcycles C 00-71 to 76 and vehicle A 15-18.
- b. According to employees, the Primaburg plant is producing ammunition of all calibers and new ammunition bunkers are being built in the area.

4. Warrenfinde (082)

- a. The Karl Liebknecht Dockyards are guarded by Soviet MPs and motorized German police. These new yards are to extend south as far as the former Heinkel compound between Warnemünde and Rostock. A new railroad siding has been completed and a streetcar connection between the Heinkel compound and Rostock is under construction. A former German freighter of 15,000 tons and three German torpedo boats are still under repair in the port. A Soviet naval unit uses vehicles 8-41-62 to 86.
